DEPARTMENT OF MINES.

"PLACER-MINING ACT."

April 4th, 1938.

PURSUANT to the provisions of section 127 of the "Placer-mining Act," being chapter 184 of the "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1936," as enacted by section 23 of the "Placer-mining Act Amendment Act, 1937," being chapter 48 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1937, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to make the following regulations governing the granting of special leases for placer-mining purposes:—

1. In locating a property for the purpose of obtaining a special placer-mining lease thereof, the free miner shall place a legal post on the ground to mark each end of the leasehold, one post to be known as the "Initial Post" and the other as the "Final Post." Upon the initial post and final post shall be written the words "Initial Post" and "Final Post," respectively, together with the name of the locator, the date of the location, and the words "Special Leasehold." Upon the initial post shall also be written the approximate compass-bearing of the final post. In addition to the foregoing posts, there shall be placed an intermediate legal post at each change in direction (if any) of the ground to be applied for, and in any event there shall be an intermediate post at each mile point between the initial and final posts; each intermediate post to bear a number commencing at "2," the initial post to be No. 1 and the final post to bear the number following the number of the last intermediate post. The provisions of subsection (2) of section 105 of the "Placer-mining Act" respecting the notice to be posted on the initial post, the provisions of subsection (5) of said section respecting the notice to be posted in the office of the Mining Recorder, the provisions of section 106 of the said Act respecting the affixing of metal tags, and the provisions of section 107 of the said Act respecting the making of the application for a lease shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the leasehold. The location and area of the leasehold shall be determined by establishing its end lines running from or through the initial post and from or through the final post, at right angles to the course of the location-line at those posts, respectively, and by establishing its side-lines parallel to the course or courses of the location-line.

2. No special lease for placer-mining purposes shall be issued by the Gold Commissioner unless the terms and conditions thereof have been approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 16164.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Blind Bay Lime Company, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 26th day of March, 1938.

The authorized capital of the Company is ten thousand dollars, divided into ten thousand shares of one dollar each.

The address of its registered office is 507 Stock Exchange Building, 475 Howe Street, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, lime-quarries, cement-quarries, mines and mineral claims, mineral leases, placer leases, mining lands, timber, prospects, licences, and mining rights of every description, and to carry on business as miners, mine-owners, quarry-masters, sand merchants; and to buy, sell, develop, mine, operate, cut, work, shape, hew, carve, polish, crush, and prepare for market or use lime rock, lime products, fertilizers, and other lime products of all kinds, cement and cement products of all kinds, and to work, develop, operate, turn to account, sell, or otherwise dispose thereof:

(b.) To dig, drill, or bore for, raise, crush, wash, smelt, burn, reduce, refine, amalgamate, assay, analyse, and otherwise treat rock, lime rock, gold, silver, lead, copper, iron, coal, and any other ore, deposit, rock, metal, or mineral whatsoever, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to buy, sell, and deal in the same or any product or by-product thereof:

(c.) To engage in any branch of quarrying, smelting, milling, and refining of rocks, lime rock, or minerals:

(d.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise timber lands, leases, or claims, and the right to cut timber, surface rights and rights-of-way, water rights and privileges, patents, patent rights and concessions, and other real or personal property:

(e.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise, and to construct, operate, maintain, or alter, trails, roads, ways, tramways, reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, watercourses, canals, aqueducts, pipelines, wells, tanks, bridges, wharves, piers, mills, pumping plants, factories, foundries, furnaces, coke-ovens, crushing-works, smelting-works, concentrating-works, lime-kilns, refining-works, hydraulic, electrical, and other works and appliances, power devices and plants of every kind, laboratories, warehouses, boarding-houses, dwellings, buildings, machinery, plant, and other works and conveniences; and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, provisions, implements, chattels, and effects:

(f.) To build, purchase, lease, hire, charter, navigate, use, and operate cars, wagons, and other vehicles, boats, ships, and other vessels:

(g.) To sell or otherwise dispose of lime rock, manufactured lime products and by-products, or metal, oil, gas, or mineral products, and to take contracts for quarrying-work and for mining-work of all kinds, and to accept as a consideration shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of any limited company, where-soever incorporated and carrying on any business, directly or indirectly, conducive to the objects of this Company, if such shares, stock, debentures, or other securities are fully paid up, and to sell or otherwise dispose thereof:

(h.) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner as it shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures, charged upon all or any part of its property, including uncalled capital, so, however, that the total amount borrowed, raised, or secured and outstanding shall not, without the sanction of a general meeting of the Company, exceed one-quarter of the capital for the time being paid up; but nothing in this clause contained shall limit or affect any power of borrowing vested in the directors under the memorandum or articles:

(i.) To distribute any property of the Company among the members in specie:

(j.) To sell or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of the assets and undertaking of the Company to any party for such consideration in cash, debentures, or shares, or partly in cash, partly in debentures, or partly in shares, as may be thought fit:

(k.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others.

To purchase for investment or resale and to traffic in land and house and other property of any tenure, and any interest therein, and to create, sell, and deal in freehold and leasehold ground-rents, and to make advances upon the security of land or house or other property, or any interest therein, and generally to deal in, traffic by way of sale, lease, exchange, or otherwise with land and house property and any other property, whether real or personal:

(h.) To develop and turn to account any land acquired by or in which the Company is interested, and in particular by laying out and preparing the same for building purposes, constructing, altering, pulling down, decorating, maintaining, furnishing, fitting up, and improving buildings, and by planting, paving, draining, farming, cultivating, letting on building lease or building agreement, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants, and others:

(i.) To carry on the business of storekeepers in all its branches, and in particular to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in goods, stores, consumable articles, chattels, and effects of all kinds, both wholesale and retail:

(j.) The objects specified in each of the paragraphs hereto shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company:

(k.) The exercise of the powers contained in this memorandum of association relative to the business of engineering is to be subject always to the provisions of the "Engineering Act" of the Statutes of British Columbia.

(g.) To carry on the business of manufacturers' agents or representatives, and to act in the capacity of agents for the manufacturers of goods:

(h.) To manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in wooden, paper, corrugated paper, and paper boxes of every kind, and to manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in machinery of all kinds for the purpose of manufacturing paper, corrugated paper, and paper boxes, and to carry on generally the business of manufacturing stationers, printers, and paper-makers, and dealers in goods, wares, and merchandise:

(i.) To acquire by purchase, lease, permit, grant, or otherwise, and to obtain, own, buy, sell, hold, control, lease, assign, exchange, traffic, and deal in lands, concessions, claims, seams, veins, beds, wells, channels, sands, deposits, springs, and sources of supply of every kind and description containing and producing, or believed to contain or to be capable of containing and producing, petroleum, mineral oils, natural gas, oil shales, coal, iron, minerals, and natural products of all kinds, and to prospect for, survey, explore, open, work, develop, and maintain lands, territories, locations, rights, and facilities belonging to or acquired by the Company, or which the Company may desire to acquire, and for these or any other purposes to equip and employ expeditions and commissioners, explorers, experts, and others:

(j.) To carry on business as general contractors, commission, insurance, land, house, rental, general, and financial agents, managers, and brokers, and to engage in any business or transaction with any person, party, corporation, or company:

(k.) To prosecute and execute, directly or by contribution or other assistance, any such or any other undertakings, works, projects, or enterprises in which, or for the prosecution whereof, or on the security whereof, or of any profits or emoluments derivable therefrom, the Company shall have invested money, embarked capital, or engaged its credit:

(l.) To enter into any arrangements with any Dominion, Provincial, municipal, civic, local, or other authorities that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority rights, privileges, or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions conferred thereunder:

(m.) To establish, form, promote, or assist in paying the cost of and incidental or preliminary to the formation or establishment of any company or undertaking formed with objects altogether or in part similar to the objects for which the Company is established, and with whom the Company may or may not amalgamate, and to make or concur or assist in making all payments and financial arrangements in relation thereto; to underwrite, subscribe for, purchase, hold, sell, or dispose of shares, stock, obligations, bonds, debentures, or securities in any such company, and to pay any brokerage, commission, indemnities, and legal or other expenses incidental thereto:

(n.) To purchase and otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the business properties and liabilities of any person or company carrying on business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company, and that for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for cash or shares or other securities of the Company:

(o.) To manage, supervise, control, and carry on the business of any company, corporation, or undertaking in which the Company is interested or otherwise, and to appoint and remunerate any directors, accountants, or other experts or agents:

(p.) To employ experts to investigate and examine into the conditions, prospects, value, character, and circumstances of any business concerns and undertakings, and generally of any assets, property, or rights:

(q.) To purchase, underwrite, guarantee, subject to the "Insurance Act," the principal and interest of, subscribe, or otherwise acquire and hold and vote upon, the shares, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, or obligations of any company, or of any municipal, public, or other authority; and upon a distribution of assets or division of profits to distribute any such shares, stocks, bonds, or debentures, debenture stock, bonds, or obligations of any company, or of any municipal, public, or other authority; and upon a distribution of assets or division of profits to distribute any such shares, stocks, bonds, or obligations amongst the members of the Company in specie:

(r.) To consolidate or amalgamate with any other company or corporation whose objects are or include objects similar to any of the objects or purposes of this Company, whether by sale or purchase (for shares, stocks, debentures, or otherwise) of the undertaking with or without winding-up, or by sale or purchase for shares (wholly or partly paid up), stock, debentures, or otherwise of shares or stock of this or any such other company or corporation, subject to all liability of this or any such company or corporation as aforesaid, or by any arrangement of the nature of partnership, or in any other manner:

(s.) To apply for in the name of the Company or other corporation or person, promote, support, and obtain any Act of Parliament, charter, provisional, or other orders, concessions, grant from the Government, or authorization for enabling the Company or any other corporation or person to carry into effect any of the objects of the Company, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient; and to oppose any bills, orders, proceedings, or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company:

(t.) To raise or borrow and secure the payment of money in such manner and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property, present or future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company, and to issue at par, or at a premium or discount, bonds, debentures, mortgage debentures, and debenture stock, payable to bearer or otherwise, either permanent or redeemable and collaterally, grant securities under the "Bank Act," and to secure any or all of the obligations of the Company by trust deed or other deeds, writings, or assurances, and to issue and deposit any securities which the Company has power to issue by way of mortgage to secure any sum less than the nominal amount of such securities, and also by way of security for the performance of any contracts or obligations of the Company:

(u.) To pay all or any of the expenses incurred in connection with the formation, promotion, and incorporation of the Company:

(v.) To pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, services rendered, or otherwise, and generally to satisfy any payments of or obligations of the Company by the issue of shares of this or any other company, credited as fully or partly paid up, or of bonds, debentures, or other securities of this or any other company, credited as fully or partly paid up:

(w.) To act as employee, agent, or manager of any person, firm, or corporation with which the Company may be associated or in which it may be interested:

(x.) To establish agencies and branches, and to regulate and discontinue the same, and to procure the Company to be licensed, registered, or otherwise recognized in any foreign country, and to designate any person therein as attorney or representative of the Company with power to represent the Company in all matters according to the laws of such foreign country, and to accept service for and on behalf of the Company of any process or suit:

(y.) The business or purpose of the Company is from time to time to do any one or more of the acts and things herein set forth either as principals, factors, or agents, or in conjunction with others, or for any other companies or persons, or by or through any factors, trustees, or agents, and to hold in the name of others any property which the Company is authorized to acquire; and generally to carry on any business, whether organized or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently or profitably carried on in connection with the above or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value and render profitable any of the properties or rights of the Company; and to do all and everything necessary, suitable, and convenient or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attainment of any one or more of the objects enumerated herein or incidental to the powers herein named, or which shall appear at the time to be conducive or expedient for the protection or benefit of the Company.

And it is hereby declared that in the interpretation of this clause the meaning of any of the objects of the Company shall not be restricted by reference to or inference from any other object or the name of the Company or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that in the event of any ambiguity this clause shall be construed in such manner as to widen and not to restrict the powers of the Company.

The objects hereinbefore set forth shall be construed so as to widen but not as in any way to restrict or limit any implied powers conferred by section 22 or any other provision of the "Companies Act" and amending Acts.
